

Ohio River Continues To Flood Land Friday

New Crests Expected To Come Soon

By The Associated Press
The swollen Ohio river spilled across more acres of farmland and town property Friday, but a forecast of colder weather eased the immediate threat of new widespread floods in the Midwest.

At the same time, a frigid new storm whistled down toward chilled California, a freak windstorm accompanied by heavy rain felled some trees and flattened some grain storage bins in central Illinois and dense fog blanketed Iowa.

At Indianapolis, the mercury soared to a record high of 65 for the date.

Rain splashed ominously against the water-soaked earth throughout most of the Ohio river valley. Forecasters revised upward again their predicted flood crests for points along the Kentucky-Illinois border. Some communities started evacuations and braced for major floods.

But the outcome of the worst flood threats of the season will rest on weather conditions in the immediate future. A mass of cold air moving down from Canada brought the promise of clearing skies. If new rains hold off until the crests pass downstream, the threat may flake off.

The water is going down on smaller midwest rivers and along the Cincinnati stretch of the Ohio. The 20,000 residents of Vincennes, Ind., breathed easier when the flooded Wabash river began leveling off at 27.3 feet against the city's flood wall. The weather bureau said the rise was virtually over.

However, at Memphis, Tenn., Col. Louis H. Foote, U. S. district engineer, ordered flood control experts into the Cairo, Ill., area to observe flood conditions. The Ohio and Mississippi rivers, both rising high, join at Cairo. Foote said his order was a precautionary move. He advised levee and drainage districts above and below Cairo to establish patrols and hurry maintenance work.

The Ohio river, rising three feet overnight, poured completely across the main street of Rosiclare, Ill., and flooded numerous business establishments. Rosiclare is a town of nearly 2,000. Telephone service failed when the waters poured in.

Rosiclare has no flood wall. But ironically, the national budget submitted to congress Monday included a request for a $385,000 flood control project there.

Harry Porter, publisher of the Hardin County Independent, said the community is "faced with a disastrous flood." Some 60 families already have been evacuated.

Reward Offered In Unsolved Slaying To Be Scholarship

Gary, Ind., Jan. 13—(AP)—Reward money offered by the Gary local of the AFL Teachers' union in the unsolved slaying of Miss Mary Cheever, a high school teacher, will be used as a memorial scholarship fund.

The reward fund sponsored by the union for information leading to capture of Miss Cheever's slayer amounted to nearly $5,000 in cash and pledges.

Under the union's scholarship plan, it will be available on a loan basis to Gary high school graduates who wish to specialize in French or Spanish in college. Those are the subjects Miss Cheever taught.

Miss Cheever was bludgeoned to death last March 3 after she parked her car behind her apartment and police believe a purse snatcher may have been responsible.

Her death resulted in formation of the Gary Women's Citizens league to fight for better law enforcement in the city and aroused public feeling against vice conditions.

U.S. To Give Away Its Perishable Farm Goods

Washington, Jan. 13—(AP)—The agriculture department is setting up machinery for giving away government stocks of surplus perishable farm products.

The products can be given to federal agencies, public and private relief agencies in this country and foreign relief organizations.

Handling the give-away job will be the department's far-flung production and marketing administration under the terms of the 1949 farm act which authorized donation of government surplus when they can no longer be held without going to waste.

So far, no specific commodity has been put on the give-away list. The department has more than $3,500,000 invested in surpluses under farm price support programs.

The bulk of these surplus stocks are storable commodities such as cotton, wheat, corn, tobacco, soy beans, dried beans, and other grain which can be held for longer periods. It is unlikely that any of them will be put on the donation list.

Commodities held by the department which might fall eventually in the give-away class include: potatoes, dried eggs, dried milk and butter.

The law sets up a priority list in making donations. Top priority is given the munitions board and other government agencies for exchange for materials not produced in this country.

Next in line are the federal-state school lunch program, the bureau of Indian affairs, federal state and local public welfare agencies, and private welfare agencies operating in this country and its territories, in that order.

Judge Overrules Motions To Acquit Tucker Of Fraud

Chicago, Jan. 13—(AP)—Judge Walter J. LaBuy today overruled all defense motions for a directed verdict of acquittal in the Tucker mail fraud trial.

He directed that the trial be resumed and the jury be called back to hear the defense case.

Preston Tucker, former president of the bankrupt Tucker Corp., and seven associates, are charged with mail fraud, conspiracy, and violations of the Securities and Exchange Commission's regulations in their ill-fated attempt to mass produce a rear engine automobile.

During the presentation of pleas by lawyers for the eight men, the jury has been out of the court room.

One of the defense statements for a directed verdict, made earlier in today's session, the defense had asked "since when is it a crime to change the design of a proposed car?"

William T. Kirby put the question. He is Tucker's lawyer.

He said that the government, in its 11 week presentation of 73 witnesses, had much much of the fact that there had been design changes made in the proposed car.

Nationals Charge Russia Is Helping Reds Plan Invasion

Taipei, Formosa, Jan. 13—(AP)—The Chinese Nationalists charged tonight that Russian advisers were aiding Communist preparations for an invasion of the Chusan Islands, important Nationalist airbase.

The Nationalist defense ministry, which made the allegation, said each Red division assigned to the assault had four Russian officers assigned to it. No other details were supplied.

The Chusan (Chushan) Archipelago, lies about 100 miles south of Shanghai but the nearest islands are only seven miles from the mainland.

The Communists twice in the last year have attempted to conquer or neutralize the islands but have taken only two insignificant islets near shore. Pro-Nationalist reports said they were bloodily repulsed on the others.

Chusan, main island of the group, is 20 miles long and 10 miles wide. On it is a Nationalist airfield from which increasingly heavy raids have been made on Shanghai and other Red holdings.

The Nationalists say the harbor of Hangchow, on the mainland west of the Chusans, is crowded with some 2,000 junks assembled for a new attempt to knock out the troublesome base.

Nationalist air headquarters said this Hangchow invasion fleet was heavily attacked during the day by B-29's. The entire mainland coast opposite the islands also was reported bombed. Six locomotives and a bridge were reported destroyed on the Chekiang-Kiangsi railway that leads southwest out of Hangchow.

In anticipation of an eventual Communist move against Formosa, island capital of the Nationalists, the government also disclosed it expects to conscript 35,000 Formosans by the end of May.

The first group of 4,000 middle school (high school) youths already has been drafted to be trained as sergeants.

Illinois News Briefs

Newton, Ill., Jan. 13—(AP)—Newton's parking meters, which have been in and out, will be in use again Monday under a new city ordinance.

The latest ordinance was modeled after one passed by Bloomington which the Illinois Supreme Court upheld. It provides for a 50 cent fine if violators pay it within 48 hours, and the stiffest possible penalty would be a $200 fine and a 10-day jail term for chronic offenders.

Peoria, Ill., Jan. 13—(AP)—Contradicting President Truman's view on the national situation, a committee of 16 Peoria business and civic leaders declared today that a coal shortage emergency exists in Peoria.

Their resolution, adopted after a survey of local coal yards, will be sent to Illinois congressmen and senators.

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 13—(AP)—An air search plan devised by the Quincy Flying club for use in emergencies was endorsed today by the State Aeronautics department.

Joseph McLaughlin, State Aeronautics director, suggested that other flying groups in large downstate cities adopt the plan to facilitate statewide cooperation during disasters.

Peoria, Ill., Jan. 13—(AP)—Frank L. Schwes, 73, retired vice president of the Peoria Stone and Marble company, died today.

Newton, Ill., Jan. 13—(AP)—A $128,000 Municipal Power plant will be put into operation here Wednesday for some 3,500 users. Newton recently suffered an 18 hour blackout after a boiler failure.

Malik Walks Out Of U.N. Security Council

To Quiz Defense Chiefs On Value Of Formosa

Washington, Jan. 13—(AP)—Republican critics of the administration's hands-off Formosa policy scored a point today as the Senate foreign relations committee agreed to call the nation's defense chiefs to testify on the island's strategic value.

Over strong opposition from Chairman Connally (D-Tex.), the committee voted to summon Secretary of Defense Johnson and Gen. Omar Bradley, chairman of the joint chiefs of staff, to give their views Jan. '96 on Formosa's military importance.

This action came after Secretary of State Acheson had made his second appearance before the group this week to defend the administration decision not to supply any further arms help to Chiang Kai-Shek's forces in their last-ditch stand against the Chinese communists.

Senate republicans, however, have been clamoring for U. S. intervention to keep the 225-mile long island stronghold from falling to the Chinese Reds. They further have been demanding a first-hand report from the military leaders on how Formosa figures in this country's defense planning.

Connally twice rebuffed a request from Senator Knowland (R-Calif.) for testimony by the defense chiefs. But today he lost out when the matter was put to a vote test.

Knowland, while not a member of the foreign relations committee, was permitted to sit in on the Acheson sessions along with three other republican foes of the administration's China policy. Their demand had the powerful backing of Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.), chief GOP foreign spokesman in congress.

Connally told reporters later there was no record tally on the motion to call Johnson and Bradley which was offered by Senator Lodge (R-Mass.). But it was obvious that several of the eight democratic members had sided with the five GOP committeemen.

The policy dispute flared anew in the Senate as Senator Bridges (R-NH) took the floor to say that this country must be prepared to use "bold methods" if necessary to save Formosa.

He termed Formosa another Munich and said "if foresee that another appeasement will eventuate in another war."

Bridges asserted that the United States never did supply any real military help to the nationalists because the state department "did everything within its power to dilute and negate the Chinese program" laid down by congress.

U.S. Official Says China War Is Not Russian In Essence

Philadelphia, Jan. 13—(AP)—The Chinese revolution, a high level state department official said today, is "not Russian in essence" and does not aim at dictatorship.

The speaker was Dean Rusk, deputy under secretary of state. He also told a regional conference of the World Affairs Council that "the United States expects no formal armed aggression from Russia either in the east or west at the present time."

Additionally, Rusk said that "there is a conflict coming between Chinese nationalism and Russian imperialism masquerading as world communism."

Rusk compared the revolution in China—and nationalist movements elsewhere in Asia—to the American revolt against Britain. However, he said, the Chinese revolution is "subject to perversion." By this he apparently meant it might eventually fall under Soviet control.

"Americans," he said, "would not want to freeze conditions in the Far East. What we are seeking is a direction for the revolution."

He then declared that at present "the Chinese are not aiming at a dictatorship. Their revolution is not Russian in essence, but is subject to perversion."

He said Formosa is no challenge to United States security and that it would be an ill-advised use of U. S. armed forces to "go out and make a land grab in Formosa."

Leaves After Losing Fight On China

Lake Success, Jan. 13—(AP)—Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Jakob A. Malik grimly strode out of the U.N. Security Council again today after losing his fight to kick out Nationalist China's delegation.

Malik said he would not be back until the Nationalists headed by Dr. T. F. Tsiang are ousted.

He said also the Soviet Union would not recognize the legality of and council decisions made with Tsiang participating.

Had Walked Out Tuesday

The Russian had walked out Tuesday when the council refused his demand for an immediate vote on the Soviet resolution calling for expulsion of the Nationalists.

Then Malik came back yesterday and today to press for his ouster in the face of certain defeat.

The council vote was 6 to 3 against the Russians; but the ballot was expected and it was overshadowed by far-reaching implications.

Some high quarters here called the Russian action stupid.

But some delegations diagnosed the two Soviet walkouts this week as a propaganda device aimed to convince Red China that Russia is its only real friend on the diplomatic front.

The premier of Red China, Mao Tse-tung, is in Moscow on an ex-tended visit.

The question also arose as to whether Russia's absence would paralyze the council. Malik contended nothing legal could be done as long as Tsiang sat at the table.

Ernest A. Gross, United States, and Jean Chauvel of France demanded the council get on with its business and pay no attention to the Soviet walkout.

Gross said the work of the U. N. is too important to be stopped by the "whim of a member, through malice or propaganda."

The vote showed that all the five council nations which have recognized the Red government are not ready to oust Tsiang. Britain and Norway have broken with Tsiang's government and recognized the Reds but today they abstained on the ouster move, saying it was premature to act until at least a majority of the U. N. had recognized the Reds.

Russia was supported by Yugoslavia and India; all three have recognized the Red government at Peking.

Says Distributing Coal Unevenly Will Bring Hardships

Washington, Jan. 13—(AP)—A cautiously worded report from the Federal Bureau of Mines tonight said "some individual cases of hardship" may result from an uneven distribution of coal stocks coupled with consumer demands for certain types of coal.

The bureau reported that coal stocks in dealers' yards on January 1 averaged four days supply, compared with a five-day average supply a month earlier.

The report, however, did not take issue with President Truman's statement at his Thursday news conference that there is no present national emergency in coal.

The bureau showed some optimism about the spot shortages brought on by the United Mine Workers' three-day work week and a series of wildcat strikes in scattered mines.

"As coal production and deliveries continue in most cases the situation can be alleviated" the bureau said in reporting on its canvass of retail coal dealers for the month of December.

Buying Spurt In Stocks Checks A Bad Losing Streak

New York, Jan. 13—(AP)—Stocks finished with a whirlwind buying spurt today that checked a severe losing streak.

Prices showed losses of a few cents to more than $1 a share and gains were of equal size, but losses outnumbered gains by 2 to 1.

The initial market break that came late Thursday continued in early trading today, giving stocks their hardest jolt since the current bull movement started from the year's low last June 13—seven months ago today.

Four times during the day the quotations tape fell behind actual floor transactions, once by as much as four minutes.

In the final hour the buying got underway and erased losses and piled up gains right to the close.

The volume of trading amounted to 3,300,000 shares, the highest since May 14, 1948, and moderately above Thursday's total of 2,970,000 shares.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks lost 20 cents and closed at $71.70.

The late rally was impressive as a demonstration of buying strength in the face of the sharp decline that had begun late Thursday.

Senate Will Begin Voting On Oleo Dispute Tuesday

Washington, Jan. 13—(AP)—The Senate agreed today to start voting Tuesday in the oleomargarine-buttermilk controversy which has been before it since Jan. 4.

Under the agreement obtained by Democratic leader Lucas of Illinois, the voting will start at noon (CST) on a proposed substitute for a House-approved bill to take the federal taxes off margarine.

The voting agreement also applies to any pertinent amendments.

The substitute bill is backed by a group of senators from dairy states. It would repeal the tax of 10 cents a pound on colored oleomargarine and 1 cent a pound on the uncolored, but would prohibit shipment of yellow margarine across state lines.

No agreement has been reached on a time to vote on the House-approved bill, which contains no such restriction.

Says Gas Caused Blast That Killed Five In Vincennes

Vincennes, Ind., Jan. 13—(AP)—Coroner Paul E. Strate said today the explosion which killed five members of two families here was due to an accumulation of natural gas beneath the floor of the dwelling.

The coroner said he was unable to determine what set off the blast which demolished the structure yesterday and he added he doubted the cause would ever be established.

State Fire Marshal Alex Houghland, who came here from Indianapolis to aid in the investigation, concurred in the coroner's finding.

The demolished dwelling was one of 42 two-family structures in the Bowman Terrace federal housing project.

All are without basement but rest on foundations that raise them slightly off the ground. Gas pipes are located beneath the floors.

The fire marshal said ventilators were placed in the foundations but two of the four in the wrecked dwelling were found to be closed.

The other two were blown to bits and it could not be determined whether they also were closed.

Admiralty Reports 65 Died In Sinking Of British Sub

Chatham, Eng., Jan. 13—(AP)—The British royal navy said tonight 65 British sailors died when the submarine Thetis sank in Liverpool bay with a loss of 98 lives. It far exceeded deaths in any similar American accident.

The admiralty spokesman said lifting of the hull will be an operation of three or four days. The speed, he said, depends upon how badly the hull is damaged, the tidal currents and the position of the submarine in the mud.

In addition to the 65 lost at sea, five men perished today in the crash of a rescue plane that was to have picked up divers for the Thetis.

The plane, a Lancaster, crashed at its takeoff from a royal air force station in Scotland.

The divers, some working in conventional rigs and others in web-footed frogmen's suits, reported at least four of the Thetis's compartments were flooded by the dirty water of the Thames.

Operating at depths ranging with the tide from 43 to 54 feet, they drew up all round the broken hull, but drew no answering taps.

"I couldn't hear a thing," one diver told his shipmates.

Lt. C. F. Bowers, the Thetis's commanding officer, was among the 15 men who were rescued.

Business At Annual Home Furnishings Show Upped 100%

Chicago, Jan. 13—(AP)—Business at the annual winter home furnishings show is doubling that of a year ago and delivery of goods may have to be allocated, some persons said today.

The two-week show, housed in the big American Furniture Mart and the Merchandise Mart, is at the half-way point.

At a news conference the 34 governors of the American Furniture Mart gave this thumbnail sketch of this week's activity:

"Many manufacturers" are planning to boost production schedules on the strength of orders booked during, and immediately before, the show.

As a result there is "a good possibility" the record year of 1948 for the furniture business will be eclipsed.

The heavy demand, in turn, may require allocation of deliveries to assure fair treatment of retailers.

Prices are holding firm. Retailers feel the tags represent a fair value in the face of increasing costs.

POLICE CHIEF ORDERED TO PUT SELF IN JAIL

Grand Ledge, Mich., Jan. 13—(AP)—William Carter, 25-year-old chief of this town's two-man police force, was ordered today to lock himself in jail for 10 days.

Charles Young, 70-year-old justice of the peace, said Carter "called me names." So he found him guilty of contempt of court.

Carter contended Young was tried because 11 men seized in gambling raid were arranged in another justice's court. He plans to appeal the jail term.

Jury Acquits Man Of 1940 Murder

Chicago, Jan. 13—(AP)—Frank Monaco, 51, of Waukegan, Ill., was acquitted today by a Criminal Court jury on a charge of murdering Henry Izso, 35, 10 years ago.

The jury of nine men and three women deliberated 50 minutes before reaching a verdict on the third ballot.

Monaco could barely restrain his tears as he shook hands with the jury after the verdict was read.

Monaco, who hid from the law under another name for 10 years, was charged with murdering Izso after a quarrel at a wedding reception. Monaco said Izso was wounded when a gun discharged in a struggle.

Senate Witness Hits Socialism Of Truman Housing

Washington, Jan. 13—(AP)—A senate witness today denounced President Truman's new $2,000,000,000 middle-income housing program as "Pure Socialism" and clashed angrily with Democratic senators who sought to defend it.

The witness was Horace Russell, general counsel for the United States Savings and Loan league.

Testifying before a senate banking subcommittee, Russell flared up at one point and protested that he had been called "a liar" by Senator Sparkman (D-Ala.).

"I don't like being called a liar before a senatorial committee or anywhere else," Russell told Sparkman, who was presiding.

Another witness, Donald Monson, representing a Detroit Housing cooperative, urged approval of the administration's program.

Monson said federal housing aid laws now benefit both upper and lower income groups, and he declared:

"This legislation would plug a gap in our federal housing program by making possible home ownership for a forgotten group."

Hard Coal Miners Asked To Dig More Coal By Operators

New York, Jan. 13—(AP)—Hard coal operators asked the miners to dig more coal so as to put their employers in a position to pay "present or future wages."

United Mine Workers Vice-President Thomas Kennedy replied: "We also are in favor of greater production and will do all we can to increase it."

The average production of hard coal miners now is about two and one-half tons per man per day.

Edward Griffith, chief negotiator for the operators, disclosed after a 90-minute bargaining session that his side had asked for the production increase.

The negotiations adjourned until Monday so that union officials can attend the funeral of Mrs. Anna Louisa Lewis, mother of John L. Lewis, in Springfield, Ill., tomorrow.

Gliders Crash In Georgia Kills 11 Paratroops, Pilot

Fort Benning, Ga., Jan. 13—(AP)—A glider, winging in for a landing, crashed today at nearby Lawson Airforce base, killing 11 student paratroopers and the pilot.

Five other men were in the hospital here with serious injuries.

Capt. A. C. Parker of the infantry training center public relations office said the glider was one of two released by a C-52 tow plane. The second glider landed safely.

Parker reported the 17 men aboard the craft were taking glider training in conjunction with their parachute training.

Each, he added, was scheduled to take his final parachute jump tomorrow before graduation from the training school.

The glider, Capt. Parker continued, had just cut loose from a tow plane and was coming in to land.

An eyewitness to the crash was Major Lloyd E. Willis of Hartford, Ala., who said:

"I saw the glider coming in to land. Apparently the left wing hit the ground causing it to crash. The glider just disintegrated."

Major Willis, an instructor in the air landing group of the Airborne department of the infantry center, said he was about 1,000 feet away at the time of the crash.

The names of the dead and injured could not be obtained immediately, pending notification of next of kin.

Another eyewitness, Corporal James P. Hart of Detroit, Mich., said he watched the two gliders making a normal approach to the runway.

For a moment, he continued, he turned to observe the tow plane and when he turned back one of the gliders was "a pile of debris."

Hart said that as the crash crews started on their grim mission, he observed the glider through binoculars and "what I thought was debris turned out to be bodies."

WE'VE LOST A FRIEND

Americans are accustomed to learning from a big corps of foreign correspondents what the rest of the world is doing. They would be surprised at how little the rest of the world hears of America. That's true even of Britain and other English-speaking nations.

One man who did a lot to tell the American story abroad was Sir Illmott Lewis, longtime Washington correspondent of the London Times. Thus it is with a genuine sense of loss that we read of his passing at the age of 72 in the capital.

After more than 40 years in the United States, Sir Illmott took the trouble to find out how our government really works. He is said to have known as much about the intricacies of U. S. politics as any writer in the capital. For nearly 30 years he told the British the things he learned.

It was wholly fitting that he should have chosen to spend his years of retirement not in his native Britain but in Washington, the place he knew best. We will be lucky ever to find again as faithful an interpreter of our national life to people abroad.

THE DOCTOR SAYS:

Medical Science Advances Prolong The Life Span

By Edwin P. Jordan, M. D.
Written for NEA Service

The last 40 years has brought a remarkable increase in the average length of life. According to the figures of insurance companies a white boy 10 years old in 1911 could expect to live about 45 years more, or a little beyond the age of 55. A boy of similar age in 1948 could expect on the average to live more than 57 years or to pass the age of 67.

A similar change has occurred for women, who have always seemed to cling to life better than men. A 10-year-old girl in 1911 would on the average have lived to a little beyond the age of 55. In 1948 she could expect on the average to live till nearly 75.

Early Years Benefit
The chances for a longer life have occurred at other ages but the increase in life expectancy is perhaps more remarkable in the earlier years of life. This is because the infectious diseases which formerly took such a large toll of the young, such as diphtheria, typhoid fever, and scarlet fever, have been largely conquered.

It is gratifying that a similar change has occurred among the colored population although they have not yet quite caught up. In 1911, for example, a colored boy of 10 could have expected to live to just past the age of 51. In 1948, a colored boy of similar age could expect to live to nearly 65.

Public health measures have played an important part in the improvement. Good water, good milk, improved methods of disposal of sewage, and similar measures have helped a great deal. Undoubtedly, too, the rapid rise in the standard of living in the population as a whole has done much to prolong life.

Note: Dr. Jordan is unable to answer individual questions from readers. However, each day he will answer one of the most frequently asked questions in his column.

THE DOCTOR ANSWERS

By Edwin P. Jordan, M. D.
QUESTION: I am anxious to find out a diet for a woman going into the change of life. I am 45 years of age, and often get hot flashes, and become very tired. I think a proper diet would help me.—A.M.

ANSWER: There is no special diet for a woman during the change of life. There may be a tendency to gain weight at this time, however, so that the diet should not contain too many fattening foods—especially fats and starches.

Dimouts Ordered For All State Institutions

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 13—(AP)—Dimouts at Illinois mental hospitals and other welfare institutions were ordered today because of dwindling coal reserves.

William McKinney, state purchasing agent, said the state is unable to buy normal needs because of a cut-back in the coal production rate. He said Manteno and Chicago state hospitals are "the most serious spots."

Fred Hoehler, state welfare director, ordered the dimouts in a message to institution heads.

All buildings must be placed on a minimum lighting system, according to the order. Hoehler said the order is to be in effect until the coal situation improves.

"All elevators not operating more than one floor should be shut down and all power and steam not absolutely essential should be turned off."

Hoehler said it may not be possible to apply the restrictions to the hospital buildings at institutions but that all light and power not essential will be turned off in those buildings.

The dimout applies to 28 institutions under the welfare department.

A real "January thaw" has turned unpaved highways and the countryside into places where tire chains and rubber boots are the most important accessories of getting around. Usually this kind of weather arrives in March or April, but mild temperatures have existed for several days. Water is gushing over the spillways at Lake Jacksonville and Lake Mauvaisterre, both of which are at higher stage than ever before at this time of year.

Recruiting Our Resources

ATOMIC power and electric energy are derived from our natural resources. Soil and water give energy to plants, and man eats food for energy to live and work. Oscar L. Chapman, new secretary of the Interior, believes cheap power is vital for developing our natural resources and raising living standards. "No amount of money or manpower can make up for the shortage of basic raw materials," he has warned. "We are only as rich as our resources, and our ability to develop them."

New York Stock Market

New York Jan. 13.—(AP)—Unrelenting selling pressure forced the stock market down today by fractions to around 3 points.

It was the second consecutive fall from the seven-month bull market peak.

A late rally brought some issues up from their lows and pushed a few others into gains with the tape running later.

Although the drop today was not quite so severe as Thursday, the volume of trading expanded to a rate of 3,200,000 shares for the entire day as compared with 2,970,000 shares yesterday.

There were two distinct and severe selling waves today interspersed with numerous small rallies and sell-offs.

The first drop came in the morning when the tape averaged 2 minutes late for a brief period. The second came around mid-session when the tape ran as much as 4 minutes behind transactions on the floor.

In both cases selling pressure was most severe as the volume of trading climbed.

Springfield—Leading at every stage of the game, Routt's Rockets jumped back into the victory column here last night, nipping the St. James Tradersmen 51-37 on the Sangamon county club's boards.

Paced by Hinky Henry and Paul Saner the Jacksonville gang moved ahead of St. James 16-11 in the first quarter. The Stroudmen held that margin and added a point in the second canto to gain a 30-24 advantage at the intermission.

A sudden scoring spurt moved the Rockets ahead 41-33 in the third period and they netted ten points in the final chapter while holding the host Tradersmen to four to claim a 51-37 victory, their first in four starts.

The Rockets now own a 6-5 record for the season.

Henry was top Routt gunner, clipping the cords for 15 counters. Saner scored 12 from his pivot position.

Potter's 12 counters were high for St. James.

The St. James reserves whipped Dick Johnson's Routt second 26-20 in the preliminary.

Showdown In Big 10 Race Coming In Ohio-Wildcat Tilt

Chicago, Jan. 13—(AP)—An early showdown in the Big Ten basketball race is due at Columbus, Ohio, tomorrow night when co-leaders Ohio State and surprising Northwestern tangle.

It's possible that only one quintet—the winner at Columbus—will remain unbeaten after tomorrow night's four-game conference card.

Michigan, which like Northwestern has a 2-0 record, invades Wisconsin where the Badgers with a 1-1 record figure to be extremely dangerous if big Don Rehfeldt is in form.

Rehfeldt has averaged 26 points per game in two league contests.

The other conference games include Purdue (0-2) at Minnesota (0-1) and Indiana (1-1) at Iowa (0-1).

Ohio won its only conference start to date, thumping defending champion Illinois 63-52. With Ohio's Dick Schmitt, having lost his "football legs," the Buckeye-Northwestern clash should be a brisk scoring affair.

The Wildcats boast two excellent point-makers in Ray Ragels and Jake Fendley.

Still rated a formidable contender, Indiana is favored to get back on the winning track at Iowa after the Hoosiers' surprising upset by Michigan last Monday night. Prior to that, Indiana had won 10 straight to rank high nationally.

AMVET Indies Nip Virginia, Seek More Games

The Jacksonville AMVET independent basketball team won over the Virginia American Legion Indies Thursday night by the narrow margin of 46 to 44. The game was played in the Virginia high gym with the Cass county aggregation leading the AMVETs by several points until the final quarter, when the AMVETs turned on the heat with a deluge of baskets to take the lead.

The AMVET squad, comprised of "Lefty" Allen, Bob Sims, Dick Minor, Bob Roach, John Beades, Al Swagmeyer, Dick Curtis, Art Blimling, Harold Strickler and Bob Sample, all saw action during the game and showed remarkable improvement during the past weeks practice.

The AMVET Indies have booked a return game with the Manchester Independents, who defeated them on the Aley floor two weeks ago by a close margin, on Sunday afternoon Jan. 22nd. This game will be played at the Routt Gym and the Vets are out to gain revenge over the Green county lads.

Any independent team desiring games with the AMVETs are asked to write or contact Capt. Everett Allen, or Co-Managers, John Beades and Dick Minor.

ILLINOIS WESLEYAN WINS

Bloomington, Ill., Jan. 13—(AP)—Illinois Wesleyan trounced Augustana 80-65 in a Little Nine conference basketball game tonight.

Six Wesleyan players pocketed 19 or more points. Richie Erickson topped Augie with 18. Wesleyan led 38-30 at halftime.

SAUKEE WAR-LEADER

Rich Zimmerman

When the Pittsfield Saukees sound their battle-cry and swoop down on a basketball enemy, big Rich Zimmerman, husky pivot man, is at the helm this season, as he has been for the past three years.

Zimmerman will lead Pittsfield against Routt in a March of Dimes benefit game at I.S.D. Wednesday night.

The high scoring center was given honorable mention on the all-state tournament team at Champaign last year after scoring 18 points against Gay Kintner's rampaging Decatur.

Reads in an unsuccessful first-round tussle.

An end on Coach Glenn Smith's football team, Zimmerman has been named on the Illinois Valley all-conference eleven two years running.

Winchester Five Gains Ivy Win From Roodhouse. 63-46

Winchester—Winchester's Wildcat pack scratched and clawed the visiting Roodhouse Railroaders and sent them home with a 63-46 defeat here last night.

It was an Illinois Valley conference game.

Bo Cummings, lanky Winchester guard, registered 20 points to lead the winning Wildcats. Hutton also scored 20 for Roodhouse.

The Winchester second stringers won 47-38.

Finest Milers In World Face First Test Of Season

Washington, Jan. 13—(AP)—Some of the world's finest milers will face their first major test of the indoor track season tomorrow night in the third annual running of the Washington Evening Star games.

Back to defend his title will be husky George Wade of Yale, who won here last year in 4 minutes, 18.1 seconds. But he is expected to get plenty of competition, particularly from Don Gehrmann of Wisconsin, who last year won the Millrose mile in 4:09.5.

Browning Ross, the olympic steed-lecherer from Villanova, should wind among the leaders, if not in first place. Ross won the mile here two years ago, in 4:13.7.

Also on hand is John Twomey of the Illinois Athletic club, twice a winner of the National outdoor 1,500-meter run.

Although the mile is expected to produce the most excitement, there is some topnotch competition all down the line.

Doak Walker To Get Nelson Award

Boston, Jan. 13—(AP)—Doak Walker, Southern Methodist's three-time All-America, will be presented the Swede Nelson award for outstanding sportsmanship during the 1949 intercollegiate football season at the gridiron club's annual dinner tomorrow.

He was selected by a 96-man national committee that included coaches, sports writers and radio sportscasters.

The Southern Methodist star's closest rival in the voting was Kyle Rote, his teammate, whose feat of scoring 20 points against Notre Dame impressed some of the selection committee.

Michigan State wins

East Lansing, Mich., Jan. 13—(AP)—Forward Bill Rapchak set a new Michigan State single game scoring record of 34 points tonight to lead his team to an 81-64 win over Marquette before a crowd of 4,741.

ISD Moves To Finals At Louisiana, Upsets Top Team In Overtime

Louisiana, Mo.—Illinois School for the Deaf moved to the finals of the Louisiana invitational basketball tournament here last night when they upset the number-one rated, defending champion Bayless quintet 46-43 in a single overtime semifinal tangle.

Tiger forward Leo Ceci was a ball of fire against the Bayless Missourians, dumping in 11 field goals and five gift tosses for a 27 point total.

The game was all tied up at 41-41 at the end of regular playing time. Irvin Carlstedt, Tiger center, left the game via the foul route in the overtime period. Doyle West, his reserve, was called into active service in the overtime and performed credibly leading I.S.D. to a five point scoring barrage and victory.

The Bayless club averaged 6-2. Spike Wilson reported by telephone last night. I.S.D.'s tallest starter is Irvin Carlstedt who measures 5-9. West is 5-10.

The taller Bayless club, playing a tight defense, kept the Jacksonville outfit out of action for the first few minutes but after Ceci connected with a pair of long one-handers pulled out of their nest, having the center open. The locals needed no further invitation to race through the wide swinging doors for lay-ups, thus paving the way to the win.

The Westenders meet West Pike, Illinois, in the championship mix at 9:15 tonight.

at 4:30 Monday while Griggsville and White Hall follow the Jacksonville tussle at 7:45.

Grade school fans don't forget the PMSO tournament wind-ups at South Jacksonville tonight. Our Saviour's tangles with Bluffs for consolation honors at 7 p.m. with the championship mix set for 8 o'clock, featuring Arenzville and Chapin.

Friday the 13th has passed uneventfully. Superstitious basketball-watchers should note that the date didn't bring any more good or ill luck to teams in this area than usual. The same amount won and lost the numerous games in the vicinity last night—half the teams were victorious and the other half was robbed.

Oh, oh! Topsy Tipster just read the plug we gave J. Merle Wade about the PMSO tournament finals at South Jacksonville this evening and he wants to pick the championship and consolation winners. He doesn't know anything about the kid teams but just to keep him happy we'll pass his tips along to the readers.

It's a bigger and burlier Chapin crew over Arenzville's hot-shooting club for the title says Topsy and (what's this) Bluffs over our Saviour's for third place honors. That last selection sounds kinda flakey—especially since we know that Our Saviour's has beaten Bluffs once before this season. Yet, stranger things have happened.

Chapin—After leading 28-14 at halftime, Paul Blakeman's Chapin Bears had to fight to retain that advantage and come out with a 47-43 victory over the coming Chambersburg quintet here last night.

Leading by 14 points with only three minutes to go, Chapin fell victim to a sudden Chambersburg scoring spurt which they stopped in time to gain the narrow win.

Don Taylor and Jimmy Bonds scored 15 and 13 points apiece to lead the winners. Pool led Chambersburg gunners, shooting in 18 bullets.

Chambersburg's reserve team won the preliminary 38-20.

Jerseyville Takes Valley Decision From White Hall

Jerseyville—The rugged Jerseyville Panthers topped White Hall's Maroon quintet 75-35 in an Illinois Valley conference bout here last night.

Nalm, Jerseyville guard, led nine Panther marksmen with 18 points. McCaherty racked up 15 for White Hall.

The Jerseyville seconds won 72-47.

Baugh Decides Not To Turn Coach

Washington, Jan. 13—(AP)—Sam Baugh, the Washington Redskins' great passer, has decided not to turn football coach at this time. George Marshall, Redskins president, said today Baugh has told officials at Baylor University—who had expressed an interest in him—that he intends to continue as a player.

"Sam told me that he told Baylor that, while he appreciated being considered for a job, he wanted to play as long as he could," Marshall said.

MILLIKIN RALLIES TO WIN

Decatur, Ill., Jan. 13—(AP)—Millikin rallied to overcome a nine-point second half deficit to defeat Wheaton college 69-62 tonight in a Little Nine conference basketball game.

CRIMSON 'STOPPER'

Harvey Myers

When the going gets rough for Jacksonville high school's hardwood heroes, Coach John Chapman invariably thumbs Harvey Myers into the fray and, like a cork in a bottle, Harvey usually sees that the necessary "stopping" is done.

A senior this year, the 6-1 Myers has been serving as a valuable sixth man on the Crimson squad. A substitute role—if it can be called that—hasn't kept him from leading Jacksonville scoring on several occasions, however.

Myers ended a four-year high school football campaign last fall by catching two touchdown passes and setting up another against Havana.

Havana—Jacksonville high school's Crimson aggregation dropped its fourth hardwood encounter in 12 starts at Havana last night, succumbing to Charley Sullivan's high-flying Duck quintet 59-51.

Though Havana led at every stopping point, the Jacks were never far behind and fanned a spark of hope until the final horn.

The Ducks, paced by four cagers who broke into two place figures in the score book, jumped ahead of the fighting Jacks 16-13 in the first quarter and were never headed, though closely followed.

Havana led 32-25 at the half and 43-26 at the end of the third quarter.

Maylon Baldwin and Jack Chapman led Jacksonville scoring with 11 and 10 points each. Harvey Myers scored nine for the locals, six of them in the second quarter.

Bassett, Havana center, was top gunner for the winners with 15 tallies. Purdy scored 13 and Lyons and Lounsbury 11 each.

to the winners. Fooled Chambersburg gunners, shooting in 18 bullseyes.

Chambersburg's reserve team won a preliminary 61-40.

I Love My Doctor

By Evelyn Barkins

SINCE there was no obvious escape, I decided to relax and enjoy myself. "I could use a little rest in bed, anyway," I thought, reaching for a lacy trousseau bed jacket, the kind that are good for burying only, and nothing more active.

When John came back with his little black bag, I said, "My, my, aren't doctors' bags getting smaller? You'd never convince a child that his little brother or sister came in that! What's happening to the professional badge of honor?"

John laughed. "Decreasing in size all the time, so that the real big specialists don't carry any. Generally, the size decreases directly in proportion to the way a man's medical standing increases. And now let me take your pulse." He finished, reaching for my hand.

I felt very silly sitting there, with my hand extended like that, as if it belonged to neither of us. As a patient, I have never been a tremendous success. There is an art to lying in bed gracefully.

"Quite rapid," John said seriously, as he finished with my pulse. "You must have a high fever. Open your mouth," he continued with alarm, producing his thermometer.

Obediently, I opened, and he stuck it in. Then I spoke again, bobbing the thermometer up and down like a politician with a fat cigar. "Please don't start worrying, John. It's just a gripe, that's all."

A gripe would have suited me fine. "A gripe is nothing but a bad cold with fever," John had explained, "and like the cold, there is no cure, and little else known about it."

John removed the thermometer. "One hundred three," he read, sounding more and more disturbed like an inner Sanctum mystery.

"Here we go again," I grumbled, as he started to examine my chest.

"I was only taking a shortcut to a welfare state—cracking a safe!"

"But in some cases it doesn't work," I went. "You read that to me last week from the A.M.A. Journal. Oh, John, I'm scared!"

"Now who's a medical worrier?" he asked. "I thought you considered me crazy for thinking about exceptional coronaries at 27?"

"All right," I said. "I'm the worrier." I stopped to blow my nose. "But I caught it from you, so you're only yourself to blame."

"Blame accepted," he answered, trying to laugh. "Now just you lie still, and I'll start doing things."

In a way, it was a relief just to lie back on the pillows and let everything go hang.

Then John returned. "Look, sweetie," he said, hesitatingly, "should I call in Bob or someone else to look after you?"

I KNEW what prompted the question. Because of the emotional element involved, most doctors never treat their own families themselves. Consequently, a kind of professional courtesy exists, in that physicians treat each other's immediate families without charge, but also with a peculiar, but very human, type of reluctance about shouldering full responsibility gratuitously.

"Don't call anyone in," I said firmly. "I'm not in the mood to hold open forum for all your colleagues and their high-sounding lectures. You always say that usually there isn't anything more they can do. As for sharing responsibility, that's between you and me, and you're all the doctor I want. Let me at least be sick privately."

Which was practically my last intelligent speech for days. As for privacy, I really should have known that was only a dog's privilege. Nothing in all the world is as public as uninhibited, as free a license for open railing and undisciplined, as being sick and confined to bed.

In 10 minutes my mother and father were both in the house.
